

Book of the month

$1 MILLION FOR LIFE

Ashley Ormond

WRIGHTBOOKS, RRP $34.95

I think it's safe to say we could all do with a million dollars. Investor and author Ashley Ormond says that building a $1 million fund for life is well within the reach of the average Australian.

Ormond, who wrote the bestseller How to Give Your Kids $1 Million Each, returns with this book showing you how to apply his strategy to your finances and guiding you on how to become financially free.

His advice is based on sound investment principles such as clearing your debts, compounding (reinvesting your returns) and spending less than you earn.

It helps you practically work through your current financial situation and start today – no matter what stage of life you're at or how much you earn.

The book teaches you how to:

- Save money and pay off debts quickly.
- Use low-cost, tax-effective ways to invest in shares.
- Invest in property.
- Maximise your superannuation.
- Protect your investments and lifestyle.

$1 Million for Life: how to make it, manage it, maximise it is a step-by-step guide to financial freedom, showing you practical ways to increase your wealth for life.

Five readers can win a copy of this book

Tell us in 25 words or less your best money-making tips. Send entries to Book of the Month, Money, GPO Box 3542 Sydney NSW 2001 or email money@acpmagazines.com.au. Please include your name and postal address. Entries close on December 4, 2007.